To Jim Garrison from Harold Weisberg 3/23/68

The Courtney address

In my earlier memo of approx 3/17 I referred to the fact that Kent Courtney had used his home address as his place of business rather than the store-front present premises of the Pelican Publishing Co.

Today I obtained from Mrs. M. Brian (Barbara) Carey two samples of mailings of The Independent American literature (she left New Orleans just before December 1967 these were mailed). Each is a subscription solicitation, signed by Phil Beatright as "Circulation Promotion Manager" in one case and unsigned in the other. Each is accompanied by a subscription form to be addressed to P.O. Box 4223, New Orleans.

But each letterhead gives as the paper's address 7514 Zimpel St., the address of the earlier memo and of the pictures I took. This is the block adjacent to Pine St.
